DISCUSSION: The application for temporary resident status as a special agricultural worker was denied by the Director, Northern Regional Processing Facility. A subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Director, Legalization Appeals Unit. The case is now reopened by the Administrative Appeals Office. The appeal will be sustained.

The facility director found that (KCP) as supervisors as claimed, and therefore could not attest to anyone's employment there. The director concluded that the applicant, whose application was supported by affidavits from

The Director, Legalization Appeals Unit, dismissed the appeal on the same basis.

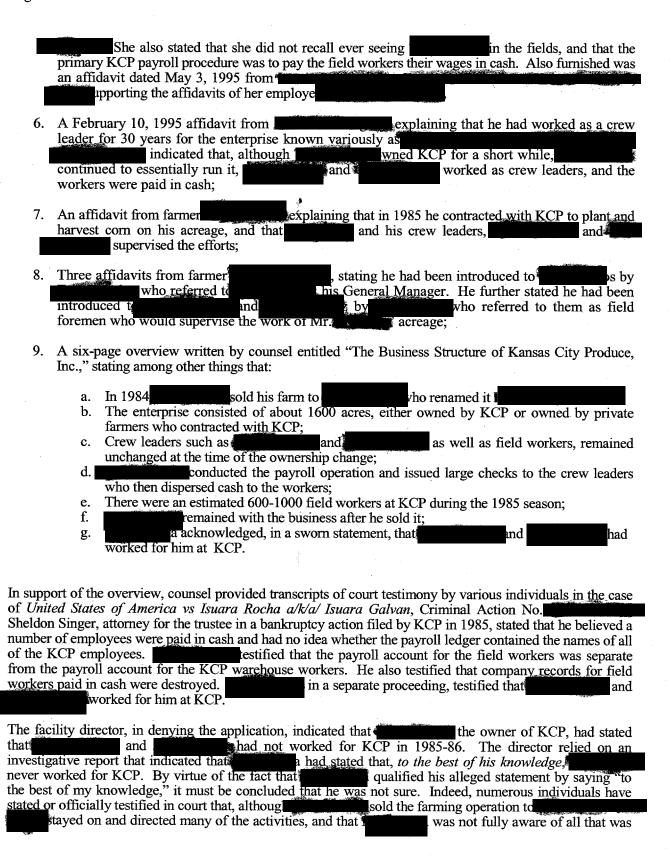

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 103.5(b), the Administrative Appeals Office will sua sponte reopen or reconsider a decision under section 210 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) when it determines that manifest injustice would occur if the prior decision were permitted to stand. Matter of O--, 19 I&N Dec. 871 (Comm. Feb. 14, 1989)

The adverse information used in this proceeding, that and an another and did not work at KCP, was not accurate. Therefore, the matter will be reopened.

In order to be eligible for temporary resident status under section 210 of the Act an alien must have engaged in qualifying agricultural employment for at least 90 days during the twelve-month period ending May 1, 1986. See 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(a).

In addition to the original affidavits from and an analysis and attesting to the applicant's employment at KCP for approximately 132 days from May 1985 to November 1985, the applicant has furnished:

- 1. His own affidavit, dated February 5, 1996, listing the crops he planted and harvested for KCP in 1985 and 1986, and explaining that the workers were brought to various locations in Kansas to work. He explained that his crew worked for and that he was paid in cash every week;
- 2. A May 23, 1995 notice from the Richard Cabot Clinic, in Kansas City, Missouri, showing the 1984-87 dates of treatment of the applicant's son;
- 3. An affidavit dated May 5, 1985 from , stating she knew and six others as workers with supervisory responsibilities with KCP;
- 4. An affidavit dated February 22, 1996 from Sister Assistant Administrator of the non-profit organization El Centro, Inc., pointing out that between May 1, 1985 and September 1985 she made field visits to KCP and became acquainted with the applicant there. In a second affidavit, dated May 5, 1995, provided the same information about the supervisors as that furnished by and stated that KCP was the primary employer of field workers in the Kansas City area. She stated that, to her knowledge, the field workers were paid in cash;
- 5. An affidavit dated May 3, 1995 from another non-profit organization, describing in detail her duties for and stating that continued to work at KCP even after he sold the business to going on in that very large operation for the short time that he owned it before KCP filed for bankruptcy. At any rate, and did testify, in a separate proceeding, that the bankruptcy has been added to be a separate proceeding.

The facility director also stated that the payroll records confirmed that not work for KCP. As noted above, there is doubt as to whether the payroll records the director reviewed included all of the field workers. It appears that the regularly-employed warehouse workers at KCP were paid by check and the migrant workers who worked in the fields at KCP, and at the other farms that contracted with KCP, were paid in cash as claimed.

An alien applying for special agricultural worker status has the burden of proving by a preponderance of evidence that he or she worked the requisite number of man-days in qualifying employment. He or she may meet this burden by providing documentation sufficient to establish the requisite employment as a matter of just and reasonable inference. See 8 C.F.R. § 210.3(b).

Given the very extensive evidence provided by counsel, it is concluded that did indeed work at KCP during the qualifying period, and that the applicant did work for them as claimed. The applicant has met his burden of proof.

ORDER: The decision of the Legalization Appeals Unit is withdrawn. The appeal is sustained.
